FROM the SIDELINES

By TAD TARG

IT HAS BEEN DONE BEFORE

In 1922 FIFA placed a ban on Germany.

Because this was the year I was born I can't quite recall the reason for it...

Must have been a silly one, as they usually are.

However, the ban forbade foreign teams to play German club or international sides.

The ban didn't last long, though.

And who do you think broke it?

THE SCOTS DID IT!!!

Yes, t h e S c o t s!

SC Celtic, even then a famous club side, on its return journey from a friendly game in Prague (Czechoslovakia) stopped in Germany and played a Berlin XI.

The game ended in a 2—2 draw, but that is beside the point.

The point is that this one game ridiculed both the attitude and "power" of FIFA.

Celtic suffered no "consequences" and the ban was soon lifted and forgotten.

Isn't it synonymous?

Wouldn't you think other Scotish clubs could act in a similar fashion?

Big Heart-tedly I mean...

THOSE BANS AGAIN

A. Saghi, as you probably know, was a member of a Hungarian junior rep. team abroad at the time of the Hungarian uprising.

The boys decided not to return to their homeland for political reasons.

The Hungarian Football Association immediately disqualified all the players, but... somehow or other all of them managed to get into and play for first division clubs in Switzerland, Germany and — as in Saghi's case — Austria.

Now, who allowed them to play?

You guessed it — FIFA!

FIFA lifted the ban placed on the players by their national football association!

Now, the same body that protected the rights of an individual to a free choice of a country to live in, to freedom and happiness, appears to deny the same rights to players, who came to Australia to find p e a c e, e c o n o m i c s t a b i l i t y, and a s e c u r e f u t u r e for their children!

What has the Austrian Football Association that the Hungarian FA didn't have?

And, in particular, what rights has FK Austria to Hungarian Saghi, who, by coming here, just got still further from the comms?

Every FIFA executive should know that here he is secure and never need be afraid of being kidnapped and taken back to a concentration camp in Hungary, as it happens in Vienna almost every day.

And, after all, FK Austria obtained his services in a similar fashion to SC Prague, only with FIFA's blessings.

So, what is the fuss all about?

Does FIFA like Austria better than it likes Australia? Or we just don't count?

Anyhow, we're getting pretty well fed up with FIFA, their preferential treatment and blunders.

Let's keep on doing our business to suit ourselves and by our own means.

WHY NOT LYNCH?

Since I wrote the above paragraphs there was an outbreak of yellow jaundice in a Sydney afternoon paper.

In a "Little Rock spirit" a sporting editorial lashed at "some of those men" who "haven't been here that long to make them such a power in our sport".

What the Editor forgets is that "them foreigners", too, are running FIFA, whose decisions he apparently wholeheartedly supports.

Only FIFA "foreigners" apparently don't give a damn about Australian soccer, but our "foreigners" do.

Now, let's take a look at the problem from a different angle.

All the "banned" players are members of one club — SC Prague.

However, it's the Sternbergs of Hakoah, the Bayuttis of APIA, the Lakmakers of Austral who stick by them.

Yet, it seems, it would be to their own club's advantage if the "banned" players were not allowed to play in competition matches.

That is if they had a narrowminded outlook.

But, fortunately, they have a broad, sane and enthusiastic attitude towards soccer in this State.

In fact — the only objective of our tireless migrant soccer officials is — WORLD CLASS SOCCER IN AUSTRALIA.

So, why condemn them?

Particularly when one doesn't quite know what it is all about.

FOOTNOTE: Nevertheless, the paper did some good for the code.

It devoted the whole back page to soccer, which — I believe — is history and will stimulate still more interest in the game.

So, let's have, perhaps, more controversy...

Federation squad was drawcard of international 'season'

The drawing power of the Federation Squad was illustrated again last Saturday, when it visited Newcastle and attracted nearly 10,000 spectators.

Against this, the touring Scotish team's failure to attract more than 6000 odd spectators in a city of two million people requires some explanation.

So far as this paper is concerned no touring team to this country ever played more purposeful soccer, yet we doubt if Mr Skolnik and Mr Storey will clear expenses when its all over.

That part won't worry Heart's as they already have their guarantee and any loss must be borne by Mr Skolnik, who sponsored the tour.

However, we feel disappointed as the Hearts were deserving of better support.

Socially they are the nicest group of fellows one could ever wish to meet.

When you consider Hajduk (Yugoslavia) drew 44,000, England a similar number in 1951, and even South Africa in 1948 drew between upwards of 40,000, then Hearts deserved 60,000 to 70,000 fans.

That they didn't get the support is because of the maladministration which has been building up over the years.

The fault lies squarely upon the Australian body, which in turn is a reflection of the failure of State bodies to pursue a more vigorous policy.

States should have demanded their representatives on the Australian Council to break away from all this tangled mess that soccer has been in for so many years.

The time is right for new blood.

The old administrators must GO AND GO NOW.

If they do not step down now, the Sydney section of the Federation is almost certain to direct its delegates to the State Council to record votes against Storey and Druery at the next Australian Council elections.

The Sydney section will never be a party to the so-called control that has brought Australia and the game into disrepute.

Federation and the Hearts

We are not to blame

After a week of hysterical attacks upon the Federation by certain newspapers we might be able to calmly review the position in retrospect.

Firstly, may we say, this paper abhors any suggestions of racial or religious bigotry in the realm of sport.

Now, so far as the Federation is concerned, especially its Management Committee, all members are aware of its position with regard to affiliation and the FIFA.

However our fight is not with the FIFA, as yet.

We, are dealing with the Australian Soccer Association which recently gave us affiliation.

The terms of affiliation were "that they accept us as we stood".

This they did, and to prove our point an Australian representative suggested in a telephone conversation that "Baumgartner and Jaros could be suspended" if they did not take the field against the Hearts in the NSW game at Newcastle, some four weeks ago.

Last Monday night the Management Committee made available all players, we repeat, all players in their Squad with the proviso that if the strongest team was not chosen no players of a weaker calibre would be available to play against the Hearts.

Bearing in mind the fiasco of soccer in the past and the recent efforts against the Hearts,

HEARTS REFUTE REPORTS

Mr Bob Tait, Heart of Midlothian director travelling with them on its Australian tour, has denied responsibility for remarks attributed to him in a Sydney afternoon newspaper.

Mr Tait was alleged to have attacked local soccer control in regard to Prague players Baumgartner, Jaros, Tamandl and Saghi, whom the Austrian club, FK Austria, has declared disqualified.

Prague officials interviewed Mr Tait, who denied saying that the Federation appeared to be controlled by a foreign element.

He also denied he had said the Prague club and officials should be thrown out for life.

SAVED ON THE BELL

Last week we lamented that scarcity of green newsprint would force us to print on white paper, but this week we were fortunate enough to get an emergency supply to carry us through until our supplies arrive from overseas.

But, unfortunately, the emergency stock comes in slightly smaller sheet than our usual size, so for the next few weeks there will be great pressure on space.

Aust. heading for higher class football

For the first time in our memory a visiting team has come to Australia and left with a drubbing.

Unfortunately it had to be at the expense of the Costa Ricans, who were, off the field, a charming group of induviduals.

They were not anywhere near world class, but in-so-far as soccer in Australia is concerned, overseas clubs will have to be of a much higher standard if they hope to win matches in this State.

We don't, for one moment imagine the Federation is in world class, but it is on the way up.

Think back to 1939—40 when Australia could field a team of players like McNabb, Crowhurst, Hughes etc., and a team like Palestine could come here and "lick the ears" of us.

Palestine then would not be in the first 30 countries playing top-class soccer.

Consider how much the game has progressed since then, plus the fact that Costa Rica played several games in Israel and left undefeated.

We are happy at the results achieved, but we're not "crowing" — the road to the top is long and arduous.

However, it is a start and what's more it has been achieved by individuals in their leisure hours, not fully paid functionaries.

When that day comes, then you may rest assured that only the Brazilians, the Dynamos, Arsenal, Rangers etc. will be good enough for us.

TEAM of the WEEK

Every week an A and B team will be selected from the best players in First Division teams.

The best A team player will be nominated as the "Player of the Week" and will score three points.

All other A team nominations will receive two points and B team players one point.

The player with the highest number of points at the end of the season will automatically become Player of the Year.

Ampol Cup fixtures, Federation Cup matches and the competition semi-finals, final and grand-final will not be taken into account.

Here are the players who stood out in last weekend's two rounds of matches.

"A" TEAM

Goalkeeper
L. LINDNER
(Granville)

Right half G. CINAT (APIA)	Centre half R. DUFF (Auburn)	Left half D. FERGUSSON (North Side)

"B" TEAM

Goalkeeper
W. HENDERSON
(Auburn)

Right back T. NORTH (Canterbury)		Left back B. WALL (Granville)
Right half E. OSEFIELD (Syd. Aust.)	Centre half R. MADDEN (Bankstown)	Left half G. ALOCCA (APIA)
Inside right R. HALL (Auburn)		Inside left R. YNTEMA (Sydney Austral)
Outside right B. TABER (North Side)	Centre forward A. BILBEY (Auburn)	Outside left I. BROWN (Bankstown)

Player of the Week

T. CINAT

APIA's right half was remarkably sound in defence, but also never missed an opportunity to turn defence into attack and made countless openings to his forwards. Cinat's ball control is above average, and his head clerances and genial positional play are outstanding. His consistently good displays have stamped him as one of the State's top man at wing half and a very useful club man.

PROGRESS POINTS

BEST PLAYERS: G. Vasary, (APIA) 11 points; P. Peters (Corrimal), R. Hawkshaw (APIA) each 8 points; J. Pretswell (Gladesville), B. Morrow (Auburn), J. De Pyper (Syd. Austral), R. Burns ,Corrimal), R. Young (Corrimal), G. Cinat (APIA) each 7 points.

Letters to the Editor

"FED-UP WITH OFFICIALS"

I am a listener to Mr Beaton's broadcasts and a reader of the Federation Soccer World.

I shudder when a man like Mr Beaton makes silly statements about soccer in NSW, then makes denials .

I am an ex-Fairfield player and I don't care who knows it that I am fed up with the way our soccer officials behave.

Les Macefield,
Madden St., Albert Pk.
Victoria.

Support for writer

We are three Juventus supporters and we are still smarting from the wound inflicted by the Victorian Council on our club in the Sun Cup Competition.

We have seen APIA and Prague in action in Sydney and we also heard Mr Beaton's broadcast and we disagree with his remarks about the Federation.

We heard him say what was quoted in your newspaper and we learned in our seven years in Australia the meaning of fair play.

There is no sign of this in Mr Beaton's letter, or perhaps his memory has failed him.

We hope you will allow L. K. Stone to continue to report the facts as he sees them.

Three disgusted Juve Fans,
Brunswick (Victoria)

Settle it on the field

I read recently in L. K. Stone's Victorian column in Soccer World that the Victorian Association secretary, Mr Stewart Beaton, believes Victorian soccer standard is higher than that of NSW.

Looking at the players chosen to represent Australia, I found names from South Australia, NSW, Queensland, but Victorian representation was very scarce.

How about arranging games between Victoria and NSW — one game to be played in each State — and letting the fans decide for themselves.

Robert Vassallo,
Redfern.

(Soccer World's Victorian correspondent, L. K. Stone, recently reported that in a Melbourne broadcast, Mr Beaton, secretary of the Victorian Football Association, had made statements decrying the standard of Federation football in NSW.

Mr Beaton subsequently claimed he had not made such statements.

Soccer World has received a large number of letters from Victorian readers in a strain similar to those published above.)

'Eye-opener'

By L. K. STONE

The chairman of the Victorian Soccer Football Association, Mr Thomas, told me that his recent trip to Sydney was a real eye-opener as far as the Federation was concerned.

Mr Thomas was in Sydney for the opening of the Heart of Midlothian Australian tour.

He was most impressed with the Federation's local organisation of the Hearts—Australia game.

He found the general atmosphere and harmony that exists in the Federation most refreshing and encouraging.

He congratulated the Federation on having done much for NSW soccer in such a short time.

Sunday preview

Once again its' Prague—Hakoah Sunday' and a big crowd is sure to pack the E. S. Marks Field for this match, which has become a "classic" in Sydney soccer despite both teams' short history.

Clashes of the past seasons have been exciting matches, but every one must feel that PRAGUE will be just too good for Hakoah.

Though the game should provide good football I expect it to be one-sided.

I cannot see how the listless Hakoah forwards will pass the strong Prague defence and feel that Baumgartner and Co. will give Walsh and his boys their toughest test to date.

The latter will have their hands full if they are to maintain their magnificent defence figures as all must agree that conceding one goal in the last seven matches is a tremendous achievement.

The clash between the Prague forwards and the excellent Hakoah defence should be worth going miles to watch.

If the former Austrians' magnificent form during Costa Rica games is any indication, then Spiegel will have one of his hardest matches ever.

His exhibition — if in top gear — should be a real crowd-pleaser.

Prague will be playing their first club game in nearly a month and after their players' big part in the Federation's three victories over Costa Rica they will be keen to keep their unbeaten record.

I frankly cannot visualize their opponents taking even a point.

Sydney Austral—Corrimal is the big match on Saturday.

Austral's great 3—1 win over Canterbury last week has proved beyond doubt that the team is worthy of its top ranking and it will be anxious to stay there.

But in Corrimal they meet another very determined club, who has also only lost one game to date, and who will come to the SCC No. 2 with a lot of ambition and a wealth of talent to back up their claims.

Cohesion in Attack

I am going for a DRAW in this match because it could easily go either way.

There is little to chose between the defenders and though I feel the Corrimal attack has more cohesion, the inclusion of former Victorian R. Yntema has strenghened Austral, where Vrolyksand Smit are really playing good soccer all the time.

Sydney Austral defeated last year's grandfinalists in their last two rounds and will be flat out to beat the 1958 minor premiers to show the public how good they really are.

They feel, as I do, that they are still being taken too lightly in spite of their remarkable series of wins — only one game down and that narrowly to Prague.

Goalie Terry Orvad will be kept busy with the hardhitting Smit, Vrolyks and de Pyper, but De Vries, I feel, will have a busier afternoon facing Stewart, Rowles, Learmonth (if fit), Kangyar and Burns.

Gladesville—Canterbury, at Gladesville Sports Ground, should produce some good football and a very even match.

The Canterbury stars who played four matches in seven days last week might still be a little jaded, but I expect CANTERBURY to run out the winners.

Gladesville is building up a very good team and could test the "Berries" on a ground they particularly relish, and on which they are very hard to beat, as Prague found out recently.

Moore, Salisbury, Curry and Jones were evidently tired when the team lost to Sydney Austral last Sunday, and, though I doubt whether even a 100 per cent fit Canterbury could have won, I think Canterbury will be a different proposition this week.

Bruce Young was nowhere near top form and Watkiss was off-balance last week.

Gladesville's forwards led by Hume and Lewsam will find it hard to rattle their opponents, but the other forwards could make it much easier if they struck form.

If Foster could repeat his great match against Prague, then the "Villes" will see this match through.

As things stand, I am backing Canterbury to win.

South Cost fans should see beautiful soccer when APIA play Balgownie on its first visit on the coast.

The Leichhardt team is going from success to success and has only dropped one point since losing 3—2 to Corrimal six weeks ago.

Balgownie, on the other hand, have had a rather lean time since joining the Federation and things are not as rosy as officials and players had expected before the season.

The "Villagers" have good players on paper, but they some how never seem to blend together.

Bruno Ganis and Terry McWatters have not yet fulfilled the great things expected from them.

Actually tenacious English man Barlowe is the team's best player to date, and, with Richardson, is the only Balgownie man not to fall below expectations.

Sunday's game should be a certainty for APIA, who have been putting up some mighty fine performances lately.

But the team would even do better if centre forward Schio did not miss so many "sitters".

It is a shame to watch so many of Vasvary's splendid openings wasted by the rangy Italian's lack of ball control.

His kick is deadly and his head game excellent, though he does not make enough use of his 6'4".

But one thing is certain, Schio is a definite crowdpleaser and a gentleman both on and off the field.

He should delight Balgownie spectators as he is a real showman.

Marston seems to have lost some of his international class and his recent club games have not been outstanding at all.

Ganis could exploit this weakness, though the excellent and solid Hawkshaw, Stedman, and the brilliant Cinat, will be always be there to clear the ball for APIA.

Budapest play hosts to North Side United at Arlington Oval and this could develop into the weekend's closest match.

Galambos will still be out through injury, but I am tipping BUDAPEST to win.

However, I, would not be unduly surprised if the match was a draw, because North Side cannot be denied now that D. Ferguson is giving such grand displays at left half, and continually feeding a forward line where Brian Taber is improving as the season goes on.

Wong is always a beautiful player to watch.

Maxie Walker had an off-day against Granville, but can be relied upon to play better on Saturday and should test the Budapest defence.

Budapest have lost four matches in a row and conceded 20 goals in these games.

Their defence has the worst average in the competition.

Though Schopf is again on the deck, the backs and halves failed badly against the quick-footed APIA forwards.

Voros tried hard last week, but had no support, and Chapman is no substitute for Galambos.

In my opinion, speedy Dick Mozsnyi would be a better proposition as a replacement and Chapman could be used on the wing half.

Goalie Bihary pulled off some amazing saves last Sunday, but unfortunately misjudged easy shots and was directly responsible for two of the four goals scored against him.

It is hoped that he will restore confidence to his backs for the vital match against Nth. Side — vital for both clubs as a win for either would take them away from the bottom of the competition.

Reputation jolted

A defeat could be tragic and full of consequences, even though we are far from the end of the season.

Budapest, who started the season auspiciously, are in real trouble now and their reputation has had quite a jolt.

North Side United desperately needs a top centre forward and above all a permanent home-ground if it is to acquire the finance indispensible to make the "top" in soccer.

Nevertheless, I think some of that club's officials are too pessimistic about the team's chances.

I feel that North Side United can hold its own against any team, any day, but they just lack that little something, an opportunist centre forward for instance, to win more matches.

Granville will be revisiting Bankstown Oval for the first time in three years and they could well celebrate the occasion by a win over the home team, which is not doing too well at present.

The Magpies, on the other hand, are holding their own quietly in unspectacular fashion.

But the main thing is to win as many points as possible, and Granville have throughy deserved the seven to their credit.

Bankstown lost again heavily to Auburn, going down 6—2, but the side had flashes of brilliance.

Brown's goal was a gem.

Wainwright had an unfortunate off-day and Madden was gven a hard tme by Auburn's new player, Alan Bilbey, the former Concord centre forward.

I forecast a win for GRANVILLE because I feel that some Bankstown officials might be over-rating their team.

The truth is that the "Towns" have never played so poorly — a sad blow to their supporters and the public generally, who have been accustomed for so long to associate the name of Bankstown with the best in soccer.

AUBURN should beat Concord at Mona Park as the team showed great promise last Sunday when it convincingly defeated luckless Bankstown.

Auburn cannot afford to lose many more matches and it will be thrilling to see if the team can make it once again this year.

It will have to withstand a terrific challenge to make the first four.

Bilbey will be playing against his former team-mates and will want to impress them, and young McFarlane will have a busy afternoon.

Victorian News and Views

From L. K. STONE

There was no match at Olympic Park last Saturday as the VASFA sportingly made the soccer headquarters available to Rugby Union for the touring British Lions match.

The doubleheader at the Showground was popular with the Victorian soccer fans, and more than 6000 went to the not very conveniently situated ground to see two very interesting matches.

In the first game, JUST defeated Moreland 3—1.

The loser's forward line was completely off target, with star player Frank Laughlan was the chief culprit.

One of his missess, only four yards in front of goal, was incredible.

JUST, on the other hand, took their chances and deserved to win.

Beatti (2), and Nejgus were the scorers for the Yugoslavs.

Moreland's goal was scored by the industrious Moore.

The second match, between George Cross and Juventus, was a thriller and had the crowd roaring for the whole 90 minutes.

George Cross won the game 1—0 late in the second half, when Juventus centre half Frangioni, who otherwise played a great stopper game, gave away a penalty.

T. Vella scored with the spotkick, and this sent the huge Maltese following crazy with delight.

The Showground was turned into a South American setting as excited supporters let off thousands of firecrackers.

Juventus included for the first time, two British players with professional experience — Tobin and Oughton.

When they settle down they will prove a tremendous aquisition.

Slavia defeated Polonia 3—1 in a tough encounter.

Bottari (Polonia) was sent off after a foul on Armstrong.

This led to a section of the crowd invading the playing pitch, but police restored order.

Goalscorers for Slavia were Bell, Gotschlich and Armstrong.

Guardini scored for Polonia.

Slavia's Glennie was the best player on the field.

Wilhelmina, with clear supremacy in all key positions, easily won 6—0 against Box Hill, who had no answer to the smooth-working Dutch forward line.

Despite Petterssen's absence — he played against Hearts in Sydney — the Wilhelmina forwards gave the opposition a lesson in speed, precision passing and science.

The gallant Angus Drennan, Box Hill skipper, was the only one able to withstand the continuous onslaught.

Occasionally he was ably assisted by Radford, the only other player in a poor Box Hill lot to show a fleeting glimpses of resistance.

Pronk, Keuken and Verschoor each got two goals, mostly from typical De Brueyekere passes.

Hakoah had an easy, but unimpressive 3—1 victory over Yarra Park at Middle Park.

Sharp-shooting Meier got all three goals for the Blues, Licouresis was Yarra Park's scorer.

Best for Hakoah were Meirer, Thomas and Hartley.

For Yarra Park, Licouresis, Macay and Santoucoulous were best.

Due to the bad playing field, and blustery conditions, the game never reached a high standard and the only real excitement was in frayed tempers.

This weekend, Scottish tourists Hearts will play at Olympic Park.

Saturday they will play Australia and Sunday they will play a Victorian team.

Victoria has been prepared by Dutch international Mike De Brueyekere.

Progress in Riverina

By GEORGE COUSINS

Those who are interested in country soccer will be pleased to know that progress is being made in the Riverina District.

Of course, those in the city must realise that we in the Riverina are really facing tremendous odds with other codes.

Rugby League and Australian Rules are drawing big gates with paid coaches, who have enormous public appeal.

The Wagga Association is affiliated with the Federation and is striving to lift the standard of soccer locally.

We realise that a good Sydney team would lift the standard if they were to play here, but finance is a big factor as our gates are poor and every one conected with local soccer is strictly amateur and play or administer the game for the love of it.

We are not asking for the impossible, but later in the season if any city team is on a country tour near the Riverina we ask that we be included.

We are indebted to Canterbury-Marrickville who showed us their style last season at Leeton and Griffith, and already both these teams have adopted their style and are among the leaders in the local competition.

Code booms in North

Northern soccer is booming this year with two new Associations affiliated with North Queensland Soccer Association.

They are Mareeba and Koomboodoomba, who join Ayr, Townsville, Ingham, Innisfail and Cairns Associations in the North Queensland competition

The Executive of the NQSFA is a very energetic one, consisting of Viv Dun, of Ayr, chairman; Bill Bowdidge secretary and Alec Campbell treasurer, both of Townsville.

Mr Dun is co-donor of one of the shields which are played for in social competition in North Queensland each year.

This is the Dun-Farquhar series, which is played on the Queen's Birthday weekend.

The other is the Grazioli Shield, which is played for at Ingham over the May Day weekend.

Bill Bowdidge is an Englishman who came out to the RAAF.

He has played for the RAF against Spanish teams and at one time for England juniors against France.

He has been secretary of NQSFA for the last seven years.

Alec Campbell has been connected with NQ equally as long, and was instrumental in reforming Idalia Rovers in the TSA fixtures two years ago.

Former Federation player Bill Roser has been doing a fine job coaching Ayr schoolboys and senior teams.

A very attractive offer was made to him to transfer to Ingham, but as yet he has made no decision about this bid.

AROUND THE JUNIORS

Costa Rican team manager Fritz Leer has outlined the basis of football in his country for the benefit of our junior associations.

Mr Leer said that lads began playing in the "mosquito" grade, which accomodated players from six to eight years.

Thus skill was almost born into the younger generation.

Games in this grade were of 35 minutes duration and the grounds were marked out in a size compatable with that of the players.

The lads graduated successively into 8—10 years, 10—14 and 14—18 grades, after which they were ready for amateur football.

Mr Leer said that in Costa Rica semi-professional football was restricted to eight clubs.

All senior clubs fielded junior teams, and many internationals had come through these junior grades, remaining with the one club.

In the current series of international matches in NSW, 11 of the 13 Sydney junior associations have presented early games.

The boys have been delighted to have had the opportunity of playing the curtain-raisers to the big games.

With the advent of more and better coaching facilities, the juniors look forward to advancing their standard of play.

Nearly 1000 teams, embracing a total of 16,000 players are taking part in the Sydney competitions on Saturdays.

Current indications are that next season will see at least an additional 3000 players in action each Saturday.

Some of the newer districts are making such rapid progress that will become tremendous forces in a year or two.

Such districts as Manly-Waringah, Sutherland, Southern, Northern Districts and Kuringai will soon be vying with the older established districts for leading positions in the junior world.

New clubs and players are urged to contact their district secretary at any stage of the season.

Many Associations can arrange to accept teams right through to the end of the season.

Competition draws are so arranged that this can be done.

Parents of young players looking for teams to play with are asked to make immediate contact.

Northerners working hard to boost code

What a golden opportunity presents itself to establish soccer in the north, especially in Adamstown.

A progressive group at Adamstown has established one of the best social clubs in New South Wales.

From a meagre start they now have assets worth £20,000, with another £20,000 developmental in the offing.

When we visited the club last Saturday we gained some first-hand knowledge of its popularity from the happy groups of people availing themselves of its amenities.

This progressive club has already given £1000 towards the improvement and extention of Adamstown soccer ground, when completed, will hold about 40,000 people.

The club carries a staff of 11, made up of a Secretary-Manager, three barmen, one barmen-cleaner and seven casual stewards.

We were invited to join in the evenings festivities by the club President, Mr A. Connelly, while Mr Ron Bown, treasurer, went out of his way to make us welcome.

Mr. S. Holyhead manages the club, which is a credit to the enterprize of Adamstown enthusiasts.

Down to earth

THE RADIO COMMENTATOR, who talked of a "boycott" of the Federation—Costa Rican game has climbed down considerably.

Why, last week he even claimed to be the first to have advocated the formation of a team squad as the game's salvation.

Well, what do you know about that!

We wonder if he also would have broken it up, as he suggested, and interrupted its training, risk of injury etc., to allow a private promoter to make his few "fiddlies".

Come, come, old chap, get on the track and stop there.

If you want to criticise get some sound basis for criticism, then give us what we deserve.

A prerequisite to all this, of course, it to have some knowledge of the game.

WE ARE NOT TO BLAME

was the request not a reasonable one?

Have supporters of soccer not become fed up to the teeth of visitors coming here and playing "exibitions" instead of engaging in "contests" with us?

All the players in question have been playing in competitions right up to our visitors arrived.

Mr. Storey even visited the Sydney Athletic Field and watched them play.

To our knowledge no notification has been received from Mr. Storey that they must no longer play in this country.

The Federation therefore have no part in this dispute, as yet, as the FIFA does not deal with minor Associations but with National Associations.

The Federation Management Committee are of course aware of certain aspects associated with the players concerned but until correspondence to this effect has been received no action can be taken.

When it does arrive we are certain they will deal with it in a manner befitting of an organisation worthy of public support.
